The Film:

“Our Bodies Our Doctors” tells the rarely-discussed story of what it means to be an abortion provider today: confronting threats of violence and facing intensified political threats and efforts to criminalize abortion. Religious control over health care is expanding, including in many pro-choice states. This film provides a crucial, hopeful point of view: an intimate glimpse into the lives of these courageous providers who have devoted their careers to ensuring women have access to skilled, compassionate care.

Guest Speaker and Q & A:

Jan Haaken: Director of the film, Professor Emeritus of Psychology at Portland State University, and a clinical psychologist.

Andrea Chiavarini, MD: Obstetrician/Gynecologist and featured in the film. Dr Chiavarini practices in Oregon and Washington and recently practiced in the Salem area.
